Annual General Meeting

Trading Update

Fintel plc (AIM: FNTL), as previously announced, is holding its Annual General Meeting ("AGM") today at 10am BST at Fintel House, St Andrew's Road, Huddersfield, HD1 6NA.

Trading update

Fintel is pleased to report that it continues to execute against its strategy and that trading is in line with the Board's expectations.

The Group has made further strategic progress, completing the previously announced acquisition of RSMR, and onboarding six new customers following the successful launch of our market intelligence software, Matrix 360, into the General Insurance market.

The Board remains confident in Fintel's ability to achieve further progress and is committed to delivering sustainable growth while maintaining a disciplined approach to capital allocation.

We look forward to updating shareholders in our half-year trading update in July 2025, and in our interim results expected to be announced in September 2025.
